Motivation and objectives of the workshop

13th INTERNATIONAL DESIGN CONFERENCE
DESIGN 2014
May 19 - 22, 2014, Dubrovnik - Croatia

Current situation

DESIGN community offers many possibilities of exchange and collaboration between fellow researchers

- broad scope from young researchers to senior members

- broad range of research interests

Support of the specific needs of PhD students and possibilities for mutual exchange can be increased

Objectives of the workshop

- To foster the exchange of ideas and research approaches between younger researchers

- To provide opportunities for discussing personal research topics, methodologies and potential problems with senior researchers

- To enhance networking and collaboration with both PhD students and senior researchers
